The Gospels describe how the star rose in the East, guided the wise men and came and stood over where Jesus, Saviour, Christ the Lord, was. At this time, an angel of the Lord appeared and the glory of the Lord shone around shepherds, living in fields. The angel announced “Good tidings of great joy which will be to all people” The child’s name was given by the angel before he was born, to Mary and independently to Joseph, – Jesus, for he will save people from their sins.
